Mexico City, June 28.—Several Indians, examined with regard to their previous testimony in the case of William O. Jenkins. former American consular agent at Puebla, testifical today that they were suspended in the air, struck and threatened with death by shooting until they agreed to testify against Jenkins, according to a Puebla desnatch to El Uni. agreed to testify against Sentenna, ac-cording to a Puebla despatch to El Uni-versal. Jenkins was kidnapped by the bandit Federico Cordova last fall and later was charged with complicity in his own capture.

The testimony is being heard before the third criminal court of Puebla, Ignacio Vasquez, former secretary of the second criminal court, declared court passes. were stolen to damage the case against Jenkins and the judge was de-posed when he was about to free the American. The bandit Cordova was cross-examined for four hours today bu

Interviewed in Mexico City tonight on his arrival from Puebla. Cordova said he had kidnapped Jenkins but that the latter was not an accomplice. The agents latter was not an accomplied. The agents of the Carranza government, Cordova asseried, had made attempts to induce him to testify that the kidnapping was the result of a scheme between himself and Jenkins, but he had declined to make such a statement. Any declarations purporting to come from him accusing Jen-kins of being implicated in his capture Cordova asserted, were pure fabrications

POLICE SEARCH TRACKS

Sacramento, Cal., June 29 .- Police to Sacramento, Cal., June 39.—Police today were searching along the Southern Pacific tracks near Davis, a few miles from here, for a train robber who held up passengers on the Atlantic express late last night. The bandit fell from the train when Al Rodell, of Cleveland, O., fired three shris in his broast.

About $200 in case and a quantity of jewelry had been taken by the 'bandit from the passengers in the last two cars on the train. He climbed aboard from the observation platform and compelled a brakeman to accompany him and brakeman to accompany him and rouse the passengers in their berths. As he attempted to enter a third coach discovered Conductor Muldowney one discovered Conductor Muldowney cocking the door and fired twice without sitting him. Rodell followed the bandit sack to the forward platform of the ob-servation car and shot him three times.

ON TAKING LIFE EASY Assisted by a "Romelink" Couch Hammock

With most of us life is a beastly rush, from rising in the morning till bedtime. In a direct, or in an aimless way, according to our habit, we scramble from one task to another, and the hours of ease are few and far between. But when a rest time does come-oh boy ! To stretch out in a good Couch Hammock, on a breeze-swept varandah, with a cigar or pipe if you be of the masculine persuasion, or with some sweets to nibble at if you are of the more deadly sex-that is the life. If Omar Khayyam had only owned a good Couch Hammock he would have added one more delight to his wilderness repertoire. His book of verse, his jug of wine, the object of his rhapsody, would still have been there, but to the list would have been added a noble Couch Hammock with good springs, which he could have slung beneath the bough- and then old Omar would sure enough know perfect contentment.
